Olympic Champion visits Alexandra Junior School

On 24th February 2020, there was a special assembly with guest speaker Amy Hillyard, who spoke about her experience in what it takes to be an Olympic Champion. Amy Hillyard spoke to the children on the importance of physical activity and the enjoyment with the sense of achievement you can get from sport. The children participated in various mini circuits of exercise followed by a Q and A session. We hope that everybody was inspired by the experience of meeting a prominent athlete!

World Book Day 5th March 2020 Children celebrating World Book Day on Thursday, 6th March 2020 dressed in their favourite story book characters, bringing to school their favourite book. The staff also entered into the spirit of the day.

Year 5 Times Tables Rock Stars Competition
