

Angela Hardstaff

I was appointed as a Trust Governor in February 2021.

I have 34 years' experience in teaching. I have worked with all age groups and sectors and gained many additional qualifications. I worked in Stoke as a Head teacher for 13 years. I am now retired, but enjoying the opportunity to work as a governor, to support the Alexandra Schools in their ability and determination to strive for the very best outcomes for every child in our schools.
