WRITING OVERVIEW	Effective writers use a number of strategies to support each component of the writing process: planning, drafting, sharing, evaluating and revisiting activities, editing and publishing. Use prefixes and suffixes in spelling • Use dictionary to confirm spellings • Write simple dictated sentences • Use handwriting joins appropriately Plan and write base on familiar forms • Rehearse sentences orally for writing • Use varied rich vocabulary • Create simple settings and plots • Assess the effectiveness of own and others' writing	Correctly spell common homophones • Increase regularity of handwriting • Plan and write based on familiar forms • Organise writing into paragraphs • Use simple organisational devices • Proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors • Evaluate own and others' writing • Read own writing aloud	Secure spelling, including homophones, prefixes, silent letters, etc • Use a thesaurus • Legible, fluent handwriting • Plan writing to suit audience and purpose Develop character, setting and atmosphere in narrative • Use organisational and presentational features • Use consistent appropriate tense • Proof reading • Performing own composition	 Use knowledge of morphology and etymology in spelling •Develop legible personal handwriting style Plan and write to suit audience and purpose; use models of writing Develop character and setting in narrative Select grammar and punctuation for effect Use a wide range of cohesive devices Ensure grammatical consistency

	 Proofread for spelling and punctuation errors
WORD	 Formation of nouns using a range of prefixes [for example super-, anti-, auto-] Use of the forms a or an according to whether the next word begins with a consonant or a vowel [for example, a rock, an open box] Word families based on common words, showing how words are related in form and meaning [for example, solve, solution, solver, dissolve, insoluble] 	• The grammatical difference between plural and possessive -s Standard English forms for verb inflections instead of local spoken forms [for example, we were instead of we was, or I did instead of I done]	 Converting nouns or adjectives into verbs using suffixes [for example, -ate; - ise; -ify] Verb prefixes [for example, dis-, de-, mis-, over- and re-] 	The difference between vocabulary typical of informal speech and vocabulary appropriate for formal speech and writing [for example, find out - discover; ask for - request; go in - enter] How words are related by meaning as synonyms and antonyms [for example, big, large, little].
SENTENCE	• Expressing time, place and cause using conjunctions [for example, when, before, after, while, so, because], adverbs [for example, then, next, soon, therefore], or prepositions [for example, before, after, during, in, because of]	 Noun phrases expanded by the addition of modifying adjectives, nouns and preposition phrases (e.g. the teacher expanded to: the strict maths teacher with curly hair) Fronted adverbials [for example, Later that day, I heard the bad news 	 Relative clauses beginning with who, which, where, when, whose, that, or an omitted relative pronoun Indicating degrees of possibility using adverbs [for example, perhaps, surely] or modal verbs [for example, might, should, will, must] 	 Use of the passive to affect the presentation of information in a sentence [for example, I broke the window in the greenhouse versus The window in the greenhouse was broken (by me)]. The difference between structures typical of informal speech and structures appropriate for formal speech and writing [for example, the use of question tags: He's your friend, isn't he?, or the use of subjunctive

TEXT	 Introduction to paragraphs as a way to group related material • Headings and sub- headings to aid presentation Use of the present perfect form of verbs instead of the simple past [for example, He has gone out to play contrasted with He went out to play] 	• Use of paragraphs to organise ideas around a theme • Appropriate choice of pronoun or noun within and across sentences to aid cohesion and avoid repetition	 Devices to build cohesion within a paragraph [for example, then, after that, this, firstly] Linking ideas across paragraphs using adverbials of time [for example, later], place [for example, nearby] and number [for example, secondly] or tense choices [for example, he had seen her before] 	forms such as If I were or Were they to come in some very formal writing and speech] • Linking ideas across paragraphs using a wider range of cohesive devices: repetition of a word or phrase, grammatical connections [for example, the use of adverbials such as on the other hand, in contrast, or as a consequence], and ellipsis • Layout devices [for example, headings, sub- headings, columns, bullets, or tables, to structure text]
PUNCTUATION	• An introduction to inverted commas to punctuate direct speech	 Use of inverted commas and other punctuation to indicate direct speech [for example, a comma after the reporting clause; end punctuation within inverted commas: The conductor shouted, "Sit down!"] Apostrophes to mark plural possession [for example, the girl's name, the girls' names] Use of commas after fronted adverbials 	 Brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis Use of commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity 	 Use of the semi-colon, colon and dash to mark the boundary between independent clauses [for example, It's raining; I'm fed up] Use of the colon to introduce a list and use of semi-colons within lists Punctuation of bullet points to list information How hyphens can be used to avoid ambiguity [for example, man eating shark versus man-

				eating shark, or recover versus re-cover]
KEY TERMINOLOGY	preposition, conjunction word family, prefix clause, subordinate clause direct speech consonant, consonant letter vowel, vowel letter inverted commas (or 'speech marks')	determiner pronoun, possessive pronoun adverbial	modal verb, relative pronoun relative clause parenthesis, bracket, dash cohesion, ambiguity	subject, object active, passive synonym, antonym ellipsis, hyphen, colon, semi- colon, bullet points

	Approach to Punctuation a	nd Grammar

Key expectations

Basic punctuation (capital letter and full stop) is taught at our feeder infant school for those children who are ready to write simple sentences.

In KS2 children are taught curriculum appropriate grammar and punctuation taught sessions for 15 minutes at least twice a week. Sessions may be taught discretely or through English lessons.

Approach to Spellings

KS2

Spellings are taught three times a week through the 'Rising Stars' spelling programme. A different spelling pattern is taught weekly through a range of different activities, including games, poems and stories. Each week children are given a set of spellings to practise at home, these will include some words linked to the weekly spelling pattern or National Curriculum words (from word lists linked to assessment tools). These are given out on a Monday and tested on Friday in a weekly spelling test, administered through dictated sentences.

Writing in English Lessons (progression)

• For anyone working below KS2 expectations, please see Early Writing or KS1 approach to writing.

Drama related activities are taught where necessary, and will fit into the writing sequence (see speaking and listening for further information).

Each week the sequence below is followed:

Skill Approach

Lesson 1	Give/explain the meaning of words in contexts	Explicit vocabulary teaching following SEEC model Pupils rephrase unfamiliar vocabulary in the text in order to explain its meaning. 'This tells me that' Vocabulary related questions or matching games are completed in order to fully immerse the child into the chapter focus. Teacher input - modelling of reading skill and strategy Pupils applying skills to vocab questions only
Lesson 2	Comprehension Focus Skill identified from National curriculum content domains (above) by class teacher with a comprehension focus.	Teacher input - modelling of reading skill and strategy Pupils applying skills to a range of questions types which vary in structure e.g. Tick a box Fill in the table Draw lines to match the correct answers Justification - give one/ two reasons why / How do you know True / False statements Use numbers to order Explain a word meaning Find and copy Match the meaning questions. Two mark questions Three mark questions Justification with evidence from text
Lesson 3	Punctuation focus.	Children will complete an unpunctuated passage linked to their differentiated version of the whole class text.

	In line with SPaG for the age and stage of the pupil's learning journey.	Pupils then apply skills to a range of questions types which vary in structure e.g. Circle, tick correctly punctuated sentence from a selection given. Explaining everything they know about a particular punctuation mark. Add in missing punctuation to SATs style questions.
Lesson 4	Magpied Language – To read as a writer.	Pupils will complete a rainbow activity with a focus linked to their writing process and magpie from a range of sources. They will discuss how to use the language in their writing and the impact it will have on the reader. They may magpie for a range of sources. e.g. Sentence starters Fronted adverbials Speech examples Actions, thoughts or feelings of a certain character
Lesson 5, 6 and 7	Children are encouraged to become authors and to write clearly, accurately and coherently, adapting their language and style in and for a range of	Pupils are encouraged to write independently for a sustained length of time using prompt mats, word mats and the working wall to help them. The work is margin marked and sentences to further 'up-level' are highlighted in yellow. A Personal Target (PT) to include in the uplevel is highlighted by the teacher.

	Assessment for writing
Writing is assessed 3 t	imes a year at each assessment point.
Spellings are also asses	sed at each assessment point alongside the weekly spelling test.
Teachers use formative	e assessment and live marking to track children's progress in writing.
Children are given pers uplevelled work.	onal targets (PT) after each writing which will then be focused on for the
